3a CARLTON TERRACE, INVERNESS IV2 3QZ

A deceptively spacious ground-floor flat within ten minutes walk of the City centre, this property is well placed to enjoy the all the amenities on offer. In good decorative order, the flat is in walk-in condition, and would suit the young professional first-time buyer or provide a worthwhile buy-to-let opportunity.

Inverness, the capital of the Highlands, is one of the fastest growing cities in Europe. With all the facilities you would expect of a city this size, yet within 20 minutes of spectacular Highland scenery, it is no wonder that it is such a popular place to live and work. Access to main-line rail services to the South is readily available, and the Airport, 15 minutes out of town, is experiencing an increase in connections to more destinations in England and the Continent.
